Foreword

Veritas, Lux, Libertas—
Truth, Light, Liberty

These three concepts should be foremost in the minds of all students of Surry Central High School. Students are in a real sense seekers—seekers of knowledge, of wisdom, of truth. The open book is a well-known symbol of scholarship, a worthy goal. The 1964 AQUILA is a record of students who have attained some measure of success in this quest, and who, figuratively speaking, are eligible to wear the cap of liberty as a symbol of a mind freed from prejudice, from fear, and from ignorance. May the seniors and those who are to succeed them continue to study, to learn, and to serve—may they carry forward the searching lamp of truth that others may follow in its light.

And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. —John 8: 32

Then shall thy light break forth—Isaiah 58: 8

We Dedicate . . .

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

Henry Brooks Adams

The teacher's role is an infinitely important one in the shaping of young lives.

And so to you . . .

Who have guided us into new worlds of knowledge,
Who have instilled within us an aesthetic appreciation for what so often seems to be the trivial and common place in life,
Who have aroused in us curiosity about the world in which we live,
Who have shown an understanding for our shortcomings and pleasure in our achievements,
Who have so often extended a warm helping hand to any one of us who would reach out,

We, the Yearbook Staff of 1964, take great pleasure in dedicating this edition of the AQUILA to our teacher and friend,

. . . Miss Evelyn Holyfield

In Memoriam

The faculty and students of Surry Central High School joined the nation in mourning the death of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy on November 22, 1963. May his life inspire us to exemplify "profiles in courage" and to ask what we can do for our school, our community, and our country.

new school year.

When the members of the Yearbook Staff were selecting a cover for the 1964 AQUILA, they expressed a desire to have a school seal as the central design. With the permission and help of Mr. Lanier, they sponsored an art contest and invited all interested students to participate. Many students submitted drawings in competition for the prize—a 1964 yearbook. Joe Beasley and Bobby Simpson were the winners, and ideas from their entries were incorporated into our school seal. In our seal, the Golden Eagle proudly displays a banner bearing the words Veritas, Lux, Libertas—Truth, Light, Liberty. The emblems in the shield above the Eagle—the open book, the torch, and the cap of freedom—are the visible signs of the ideas expressed in the Latin words. The Staff hopes that the school will find other uses for the seal.

Congratulations to Joe and Bobby!

English Department adds composition course.

English students concentrate on essential grammar and literature. A course in speech and composition added this year, provides experience in self-expression for college-bound students.

Nouns, verbs, prepositions—juniors master these basic essentials in Mr. Nance's fifth period class.

Gulliver's Travels by Jonathan Swift—uncensored...

Mrs. Mueller explains diagramming of adverb clauses.

Three years of French are offered at SCHS.

Three years of French provide a thorough course in grammar, pronunciation, and translation.

EVELYN HOLYFIELD

To improve their intonation, third-year French students listen to recordings by native Frenchmen.

Library - books and periodicals.

CLARA S. FREEMAN

Students get a background in general science, continue to biology (dissecting frogs was an experience!), and get their first taste of experimentation in chemistry. Through Science Fair projects, all science students have the opportunity to demonstrate what they can do with knowledge gained from class study and experimentation.

NELLIE W. HILL

OMA S. NORMAN

courses ready the future.

General mathematics, business arithmetic, algebra, plane geometry, and advanced mathematics—these are the challenging courses offered at SCHS to provide each student with the math skills that will adequately meet his needs after high school.

Mrs. Patterson points out to fourth period students the fundamentals of geometric construction.

With the help of Mrs. Griffin, advanced math students Darrel Lawson, Russell Simpson, and Kenneth Pittman construct geometric forms.

National Honor Society officers present lawn furniture to Mr. Lanier. Joe Norman, Vice-President; Peggy Davis, Secretary; Mr. Lanier; Marian Taylor, President; Larry Poindexter, Treasurer; Catherine Wilmoth, Reporter.

The Surry Central Chapter of the National Honor Society has as its chief goal the promotion of worthy leadership and encouragement of the development of character in the pupils of our school. Members are chosen from the junior and senior classes by a faculty committee. Selection is based on scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Honor Societies Promote Leadership.

The Beta Club is a National Honor Club, composed of members who have been elected to membership on the basis of scholarship, citizenship, and leadership qualities.

The Club strives to render service to the school and community. One project sponsored last year was the compiling of a student handbook. When school opened in the fall, each student and teacher received a copy of this attractive and useful book of school regulations and policies.

Imogene Stanley, president of the Surry Central Chapter Beta Club, presents the first copy of the handbook to Mr. Lanier.

Future Teachers of America Explore Teaching Techniques.

Seated: Barbara Shumaker, Brenda Cummings, Brenda Reece, Brenda Hardy. Standing: Mrs. Freeman, Advisor; Irene Bullin, Lou Wright, Betty Jean Wood, Gayle Gillespie.

The FTA Club has as its major purpose the exploration of the nature of teaching, its opportunities and responsibilities.

The activities of the club include visiting a nearby North Carolina college, reading books about teaching, assisting with school exhibits and book displays, and working with community and church youth organizations, such as Scouts, GA's, and Vacation Bible Schools.

First row: Sonny Hamlin, Julia Bowman, Steve Johnson, Ruth Ann Chilton, Lonnie Edmonds, Joan Whitaker, Jim Ring. ## Monogram Club Awards Blazers to Senior Athletes.

The athletes of Surry Central High School are a group organized "to foster and maintain... a spirit of fraternalism, a spirit of mutual and moral support; to instill a love for, and loyalty to Alma Mater and its ideals; and to promote the general welfare of good feeling and fellowship throughout the campus."

Science Club

Sponsors Annual Fair.

The Science Fair, main project of the Science Club, receives many entries from members of science classes. The Fair encourages students to apply constructively knowledge acquired in the classroom.

F.B.L.A. Develops Business Leadership

The purpose of this club is to develop competent, aggressive business leadership and to strengthen the self-confidence of young men and women, to create interest in the intelligent choice of business occupations, to encourage improvement of the home and community, and to develop character, to prepare for useful citizenship, and to participate in co-operative effort.

The members of the FBLA publish and sell the Centralette, type the church bulletins for neighborhood churches, sell cakes at ball games, and sponsor the Valentine Dance. Proceeds from projects purchase extra equipment for the Business Department, such as the I. B. M. dictaphone and transcriber bought this year.

Science projects by both individuals and groups make a successful Fair.

Future Farmers of America Members Select Individual Projects.

An FFA member selects livestock project.

The FFA strives to show the values and requirements of farm life. Each year the members carry on projects dealing with farm life and participate in school, county, and district contests.

The FHA is a national organization of students of home economics. Its over-all goal is to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living now and in the future.

A number of worthwhile projects are performed each year. One of special interest this year is the care of an orphan child in Thailand.

FHA sponsors fair exhibit.

Future Homemakers of America "Adopt" an Orphan Child in Thailand.

SCHS Band usually begins the year with the annual trip to UNC for Band Day. Later in the season the members perform at the Dixie Classic Fair and march in both the Winston-Salem and Elkin Christmas Parades. The Band boosts school spirit by playing at pep rallies and by providing pep groups for ball games. In the spring, the members look forward to The Azalea Festival and to The Sun-Fun Festival.

school and community programs.

The major presentations of the Chorus this year have been a program at the district NCEA meeting in Boone in September, a Thanksgiving service at school which included selections by the Freshman Chorus, Christmas caroling at a local rest home, a "hootenanny," and performances of historical music for classes at school.

The combined choruses.

Through the Athletic program, students develop school spirit.

Football Team

Although Central's football team hasn't had the success it hopes for, the boys are making great strides. The formation of a freshman football team and of the Boosters' Club has strengthened the football program.

Closing . . .

As the year draws to a close, the students prepare to leave behind another chapter of life, the chapter recorded in the 1964 AQUILA. They remember the joys of the past year, the successes, and the three concepts which guided them. May truth, light, and liberty continue to guide them in the years ahead, and may they ever desire "to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."
